Library Issue Opposed

PLANS UNVEILED BY BOARD

A handful of people, less than 50, showed up at the meeting called by Library Trustees Richard Waterhouse, Dr. Manuel C. Rosenfield and Mrs. Agnes Berg at Old Hammondtown School last Wednesday night. The meeting was tightly controlled by the trustees. Mr. Waterhouse flatly refused to discuss the resignation of librarian Mrs. Berthold Putman. On another occasion he refused to disclose the library budget for the coming fiscal year saying that it would be revealed by the Finance Committee at the Annual Town Meeting. He finally relented enough to give the total of $18,000.

Dr. Rosenfield was given the floor at the start of the meeting showing slides of the structure from every angle. He pointed out pictorially the defects of the building. A massive main support beam was shown to have a crack along the grain and Dr. Rosenfield said that the architects had measured a 1" settling of the floor.

Dr. Rosenfield then showed slides of Winchester's library of a standard that the trustees wish to emulate. These slides featured

Mr. Waterhouse then took over to announce that Mrs. Anne Sherman LaPlante of Long Plain Road had been hired as librarian. He said that the Board had received 39 applications of which 14 were for the librarian position. He said that Mrs. LaPlante would take college courses for five years to obtain the special training to qualify as a professional librarian. Mr. Waterhouse repeatedly re-transportation to and from the college. Mr. Russell LaFrance questioned the impact that accepting the $1,600. of State aid will have on the overall library budget. He asked if Mr. Waterhouse expected to get library professionals at $2.20 per hour. Mr. Waterhouse replied that he could have found many people with B.A. degrees outside of town willing to take the job at $2.20 per hour. Mr. Dunn said that he wondered if the salary increases, cost of schooling and transportation was going to cost the town far more than the sum of $1600. that we have received.

Donald Fleming, moderator, said that the Personnel Board will determine the librarian's pay which will be voted upon at the Special Town Meeting called within the annual town meeting.

Mr. LaFrance asked the question, Did you ever consider asking the people of Mattapoisett what they wanted? He said that he didn't care what Winchester does. He continued that we have all of these things (potato printing, finger painting, stereo equipment, audio visual equipment, basket weaving) going on in the schools. How many times must we duplicate the same thing? he said.

For the future, the rest of the cellar might be transformed into a meeting room. Robert Cattley asked if provision were in the budget in the event that the basement becomes a meeting room. He asked why the Friends of the Library were asked not to meet there. Mr. Waterhouse said, "I don't know". He said that the Trustees didn't ask the Friends to leave.

Miss Lydia LeBaron Walker questioned the necessity for the expansion. She said that she had been in the library countless times and had never once seen it crowded even though it is open only 22 hours per week. Where are all these people? she asked. Mrs. Berg replied that if the library is not crowded the trustees are not doing their job.

Mr. Paul Kelley asked for support for at least the fire alarm system at a cost of $3,500. which is contained within the

The architect, Mr. LeBonte, said that he could not break that amount down and quote a separate figure for a steel beam. He said that once you start to upgrade this building the State will say how you must do it and will lay down the requirements to do it right.

No person in the meeting expressed any support for the library plans except the three library trustees.

Mattapoisett Seniors

The Senior Citizens enjoyed a dinner party at the Harbor Beach Club arranged through the cooperation of the Council on Aging and Bob Carrier who conveniently planned it on Sunday, April 7th, when the Fabulous (and she was fabulous) Marie Marcus and her Dixieland Band was appearing there. The music and wonderful atmosphere, where the food was superb will long be remembered.

Following the dinner, after the band left to fulfill another engagement, the club's own pianist Allen Thomas entertained. There was socializing, singing and dancing. They were the happiest, most contented people in the world.

The Council on Aging and the Senior Society say to you Bob, Thank you, Thank you, Thank you.

The Mattapoisett Senior Society held a meeting Monday, April 8th, at the Drop-In Center, the Legion Hall. There was a large attendance and many new members joined. At the close of the meeting Mr. Frank Bogie, who had arranged to have Dr. Edward Kestenbaum as guest speaker, introduced him. The guest was really terrific. He was very informative, witty and his speaking was much needed. Actually it was a "pep talk". He especially emphasized "Senior Power" in politics, signing petitions, going after benefits and most of all to vote. He said that statistics show that the 20 million seniors who voted were over 65 years and over 50% of them were women. He did not quote figures on the 55-65 year seniors.

Refreshments were served and a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed.

Registrations for the Loft School of Marion are still being accepted for the 1974-75 school year. Openings are available in both the three and four year-old programs.

For registration or more information, contact Mrs. Albert Ford, 748-1661.

The Loft is presenting a program of child development on Thursday, April 25, at 7:30. The discussion with question and answer period will be handled by four members of the Sippican School staff.
